ALL IN A
STUNNING ENVIRONMENT

SANDRA

A MODERN-DAY ERIN BROKOVITCH OF THE OCEANS.

Sandra's son tragically dies after exposure to chemicals spilled by an unscrupulous factory.

Attempts to expose the truth fail.

She's crushed by a painful trial.

SANDRA

A MODERN-DAY ERIN BROKOVITCH OF THE OCEANS.

Immersed in her son's possessions, she discovers his infatuation with the sea, his links to TransparenSEA, a ship cruising the oceans to uncover ecological scandals then seeking solutions. With nothing more to lose, clinging to her son's memory, she signs up as crew.

SANDRA

A MODERN-DAY ERIN BROKOVITCH OF THE OCEANS.

Except, she is NOT a sailor, NOT a diver, easily becomes seasick. She is NOT cutout for adventure.

She fails at her very first assigned mission.

Here begins a series of life changing adventures jolting her from a hardworking single mom into an icon for ocean preservation.

SANDRA

A MODERN-DAY ERIN BROKOVITCH OF THE OCEANS.

Sandra is a woman all can relate to: passionate personality, fragile yet courageous, fun and humorous, impulsive at times, revolted by injustice, able to ignore danger despite obvious risk.

She is tenderhearted; easily swept off her feet.

THE CREW

The TransparenSEA crew is like a family. Zealous activists, hardy seamen, scientists, it's a team of striking men and women characters with varying nationalities. Love, conflicts, fights, arguments, reconciliations; amplified when confined on a vessel.

EMOTIONALLY STIRRING

It's mainstream entertainment.

We crave to know what's coming next, we're drawn to the beauty of the oceans, outraged by polluters, we want them punished, and we desire solutions...

We long to share these amazing adventures with the crew aboard TransparenSEA.

COMPELLING MESSAGE

ESPECIALLY TO THE YOUNG GENERATION

Behind this drama, a significant message will speak to everyone, especially the young generation: preserving our oceans.

Sylvia Earle who aptly states:
“No Ocean, No us”.

TransparenSEA is (also) a fiction in service of a great cause.

WORLD RENOWN NAME

We have an exclusive deal with his son Jean-Michel Cousteau, who sailed 50 years on Calypso and co-directed most of his father's famous documentaries. He is our advisor, our expert, our real stories provider, and we can use is world renown name.

A DREAM CAST

We believe with this project we can and should aim high. It's not only entertainment, it also is a worthy cause.

Currently we are meeting with agents of top actresses in Europe and America (for example Eva Green, Natalie Portman, Diane Kruger, and also French actresses...)
